DaVita Guest Services High Acuity Patient Checklist

The following informat on must be provided from the hospital up front and prior to admission acceptance. Please fax this checklist and support ng documentat on to DaVita Admissions. Thank you

TRACH PATIENTS

Respiratory therapy notes to include:

Does the pat ent require suct oning? What is the frequency per 24-hour period?

Does the pat ent need supplemental oxygen?

Does the pat ent need a trach collar and at what %?

Does the pat ent have an ef ect ve cough?

Has the pat ent been treated for a pulmonary infect on in the last 30 days?

Is the pat ent on an ant biot c?

BED PATIENTS

DISORIENTED PATIENTS

PEG TUBE

IVAD

When was the ball Empleteed (End pinot?ths,

Does the pat ent need a hoyer lif?
How will the pat ent get to the center?
Did the hospital arrange for transportat on?
Does the pat ent have pressure wounds or ulcerand need to be turned every two hours?
Is the pat ent incont nent?

WE include nurse snotes from the pospital describing the level of orientation. DEFIBRIS the part ent alert and oriented?

Is the pat ent at risk of pulling out their needles Does the pat ent require someone to sit with the during treatment?

Is the pat ent bowel or bladder incont nent?

If the pat ent is disoriented, can a family member be present for the first treatment and to ensure forms are signed and insurance cards are copied is the pat ent on any medications to support ori

BARIATRIC PATIENTS

INOTROPIC INFUSIONS